

Executive & Regional Screening

Screen Germany's largest BEV markets against total and fast public charging provision.

All

Registered BEVs

2.36M

4.76% of registered passenger cars

Public Charging Points

209.1K

Regional median: 84.7 per 1,000 BEVs

Fast Charging Points

54.4K

Regional median: 25.3 per 1,000 BEVs

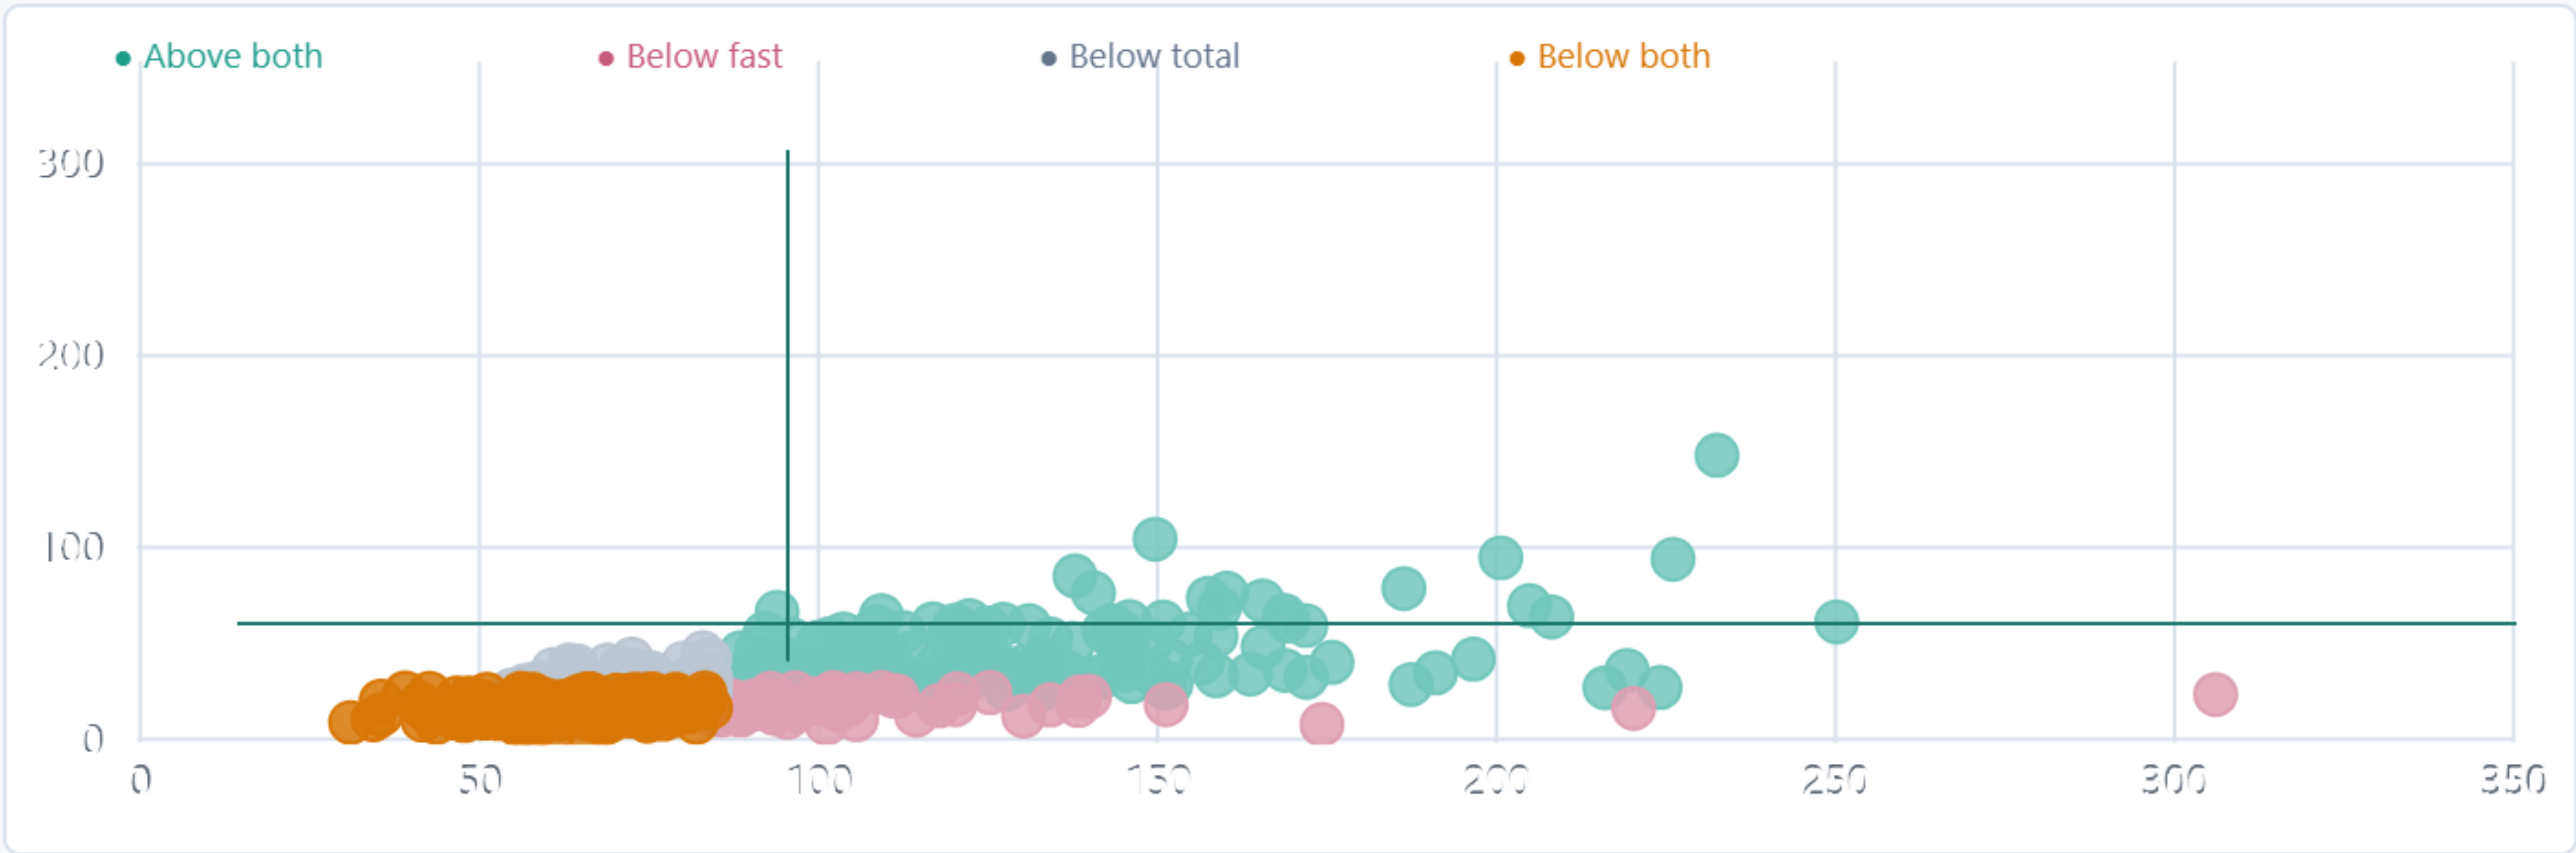

Top 100 below both medians

53 of 100

53 of the 100 largest BEV markets

Total vs Fast Charging Provision Across German Regions

X: total points / 1,000 BEVs · Y: fast points / 1,000 BEVs · medians 84.7 and 25.3. Screening signal, not an investment ranking.

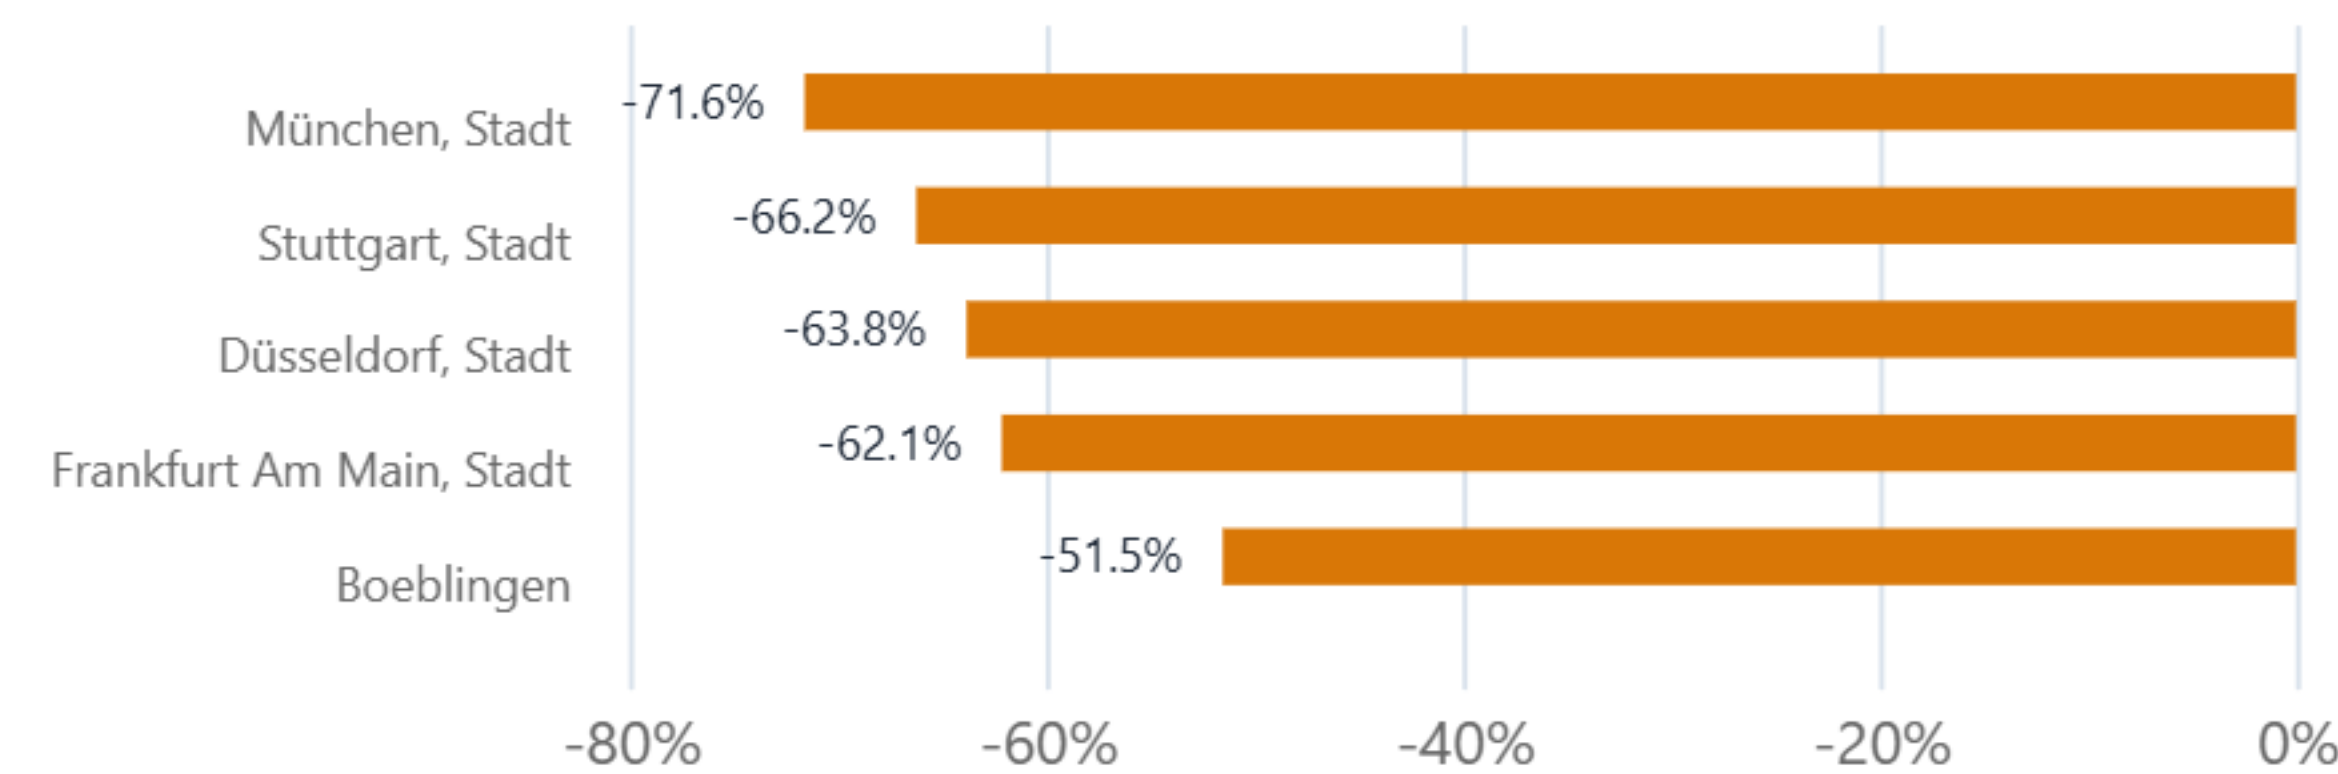

National Charging Mix · 154.7K normal | 54.4K fast

74% normal | 26% fast

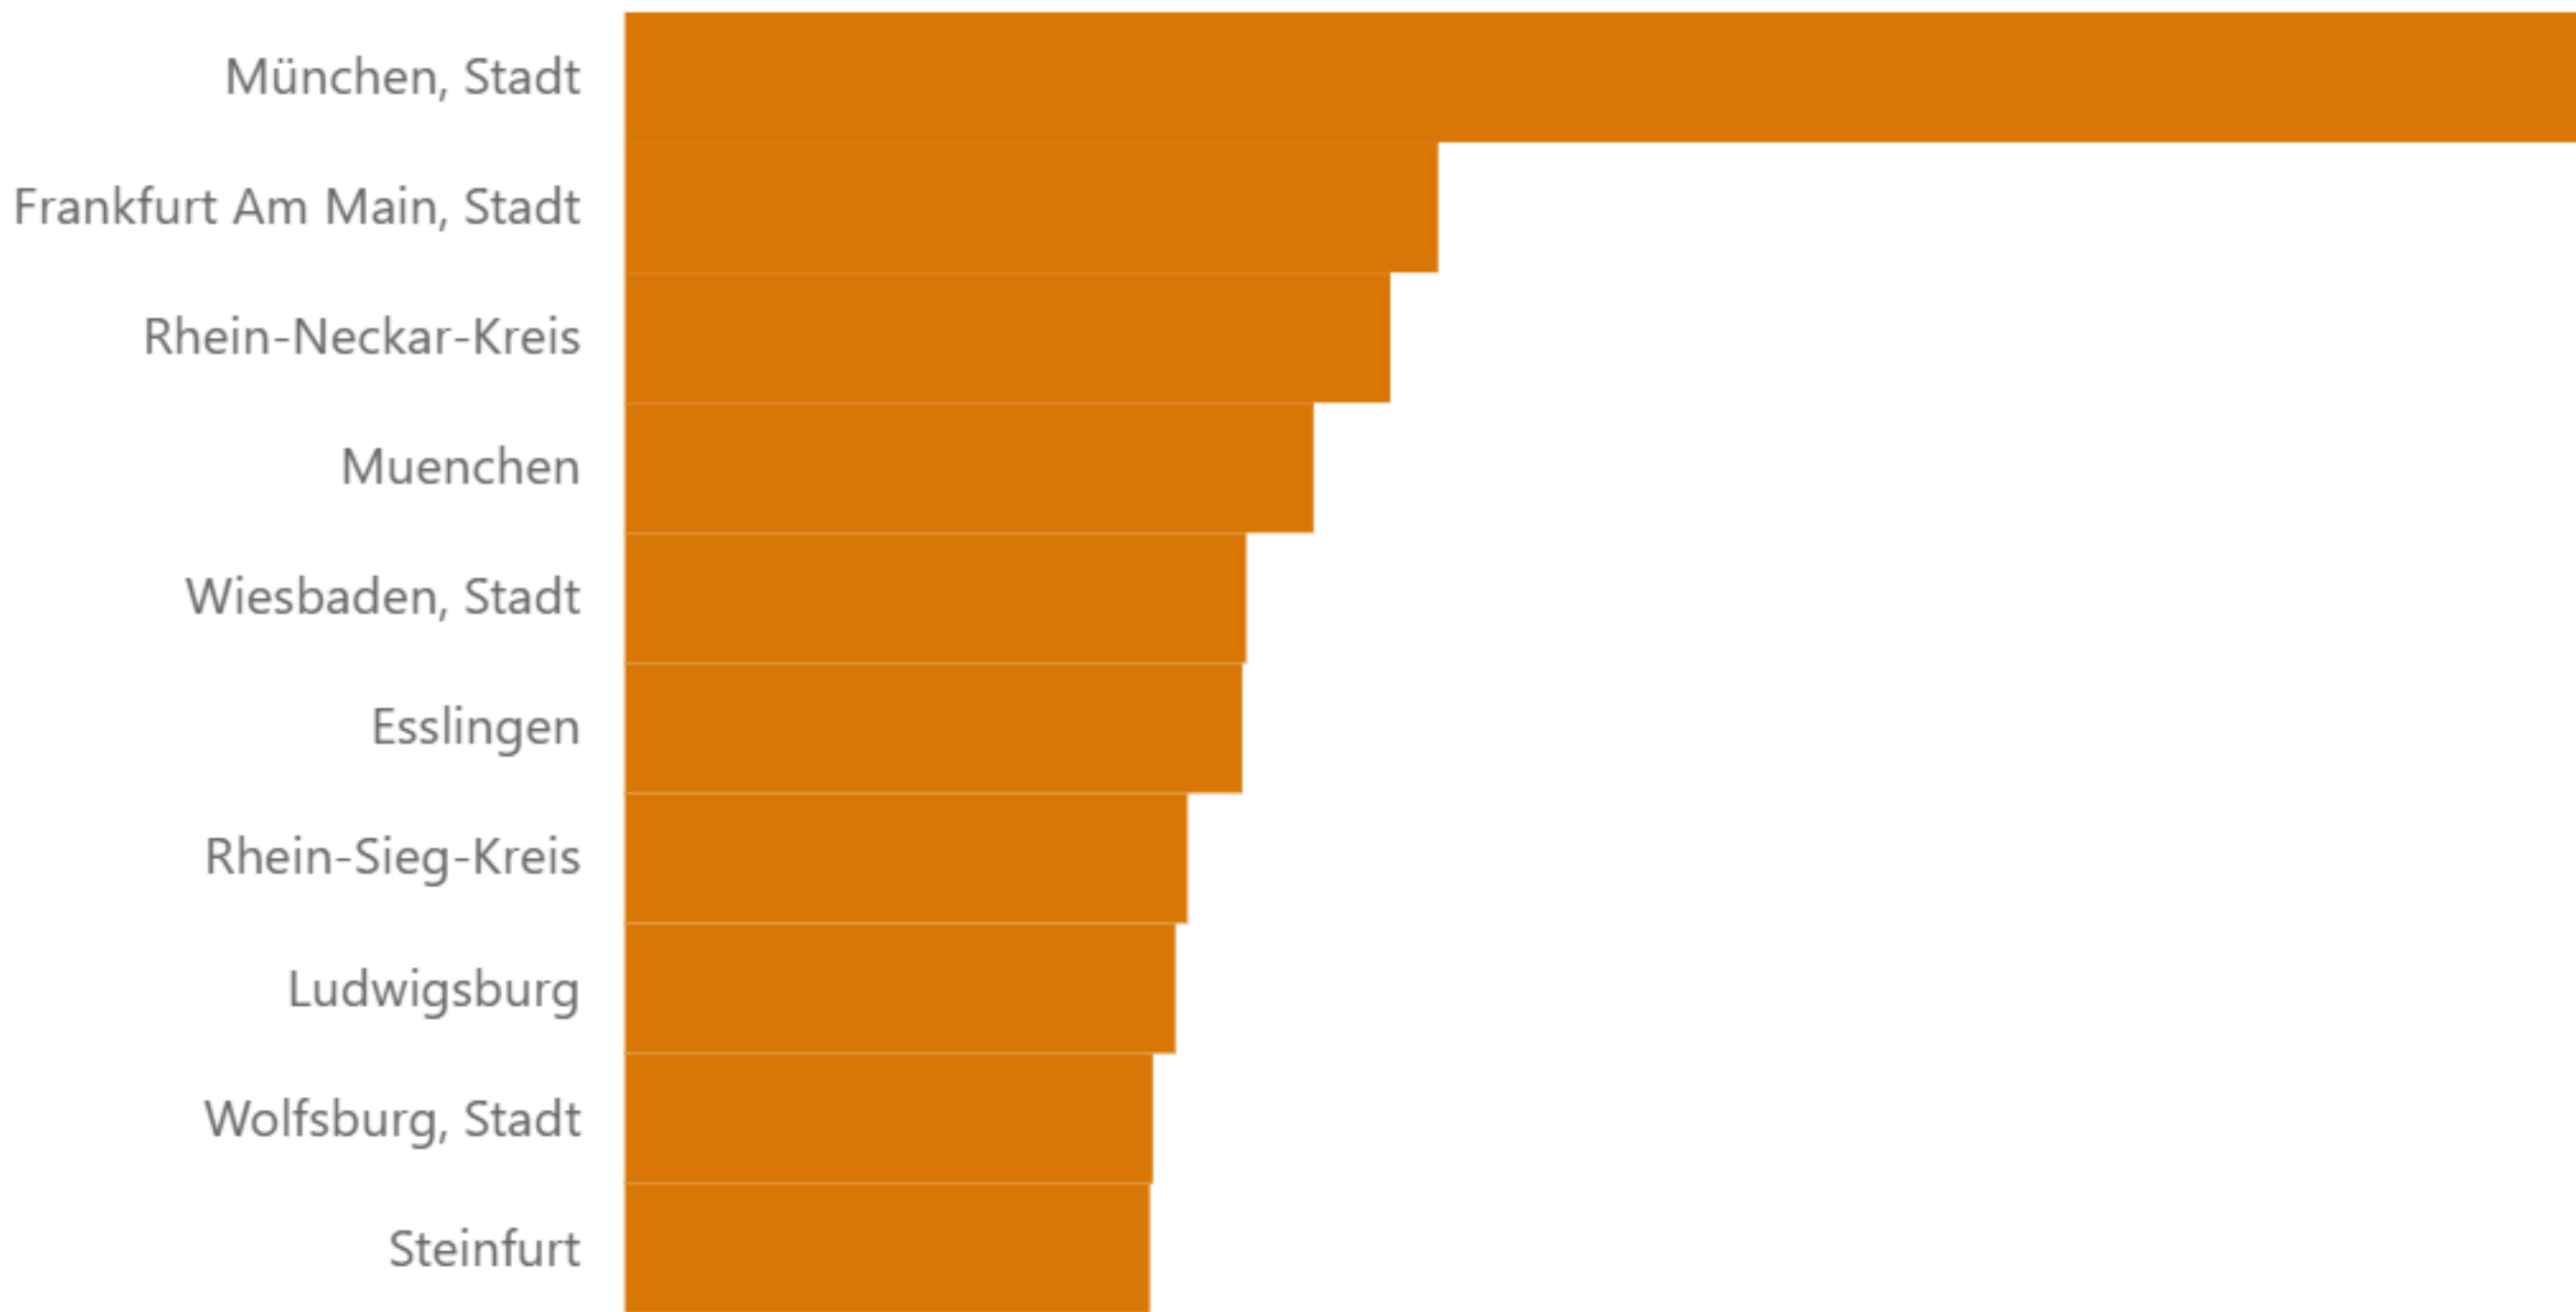

Top 5 Fast Charging Provision Gaps in Large BEV Markets

Difference from the regional fast provision median; negative values indicate below benchmark.

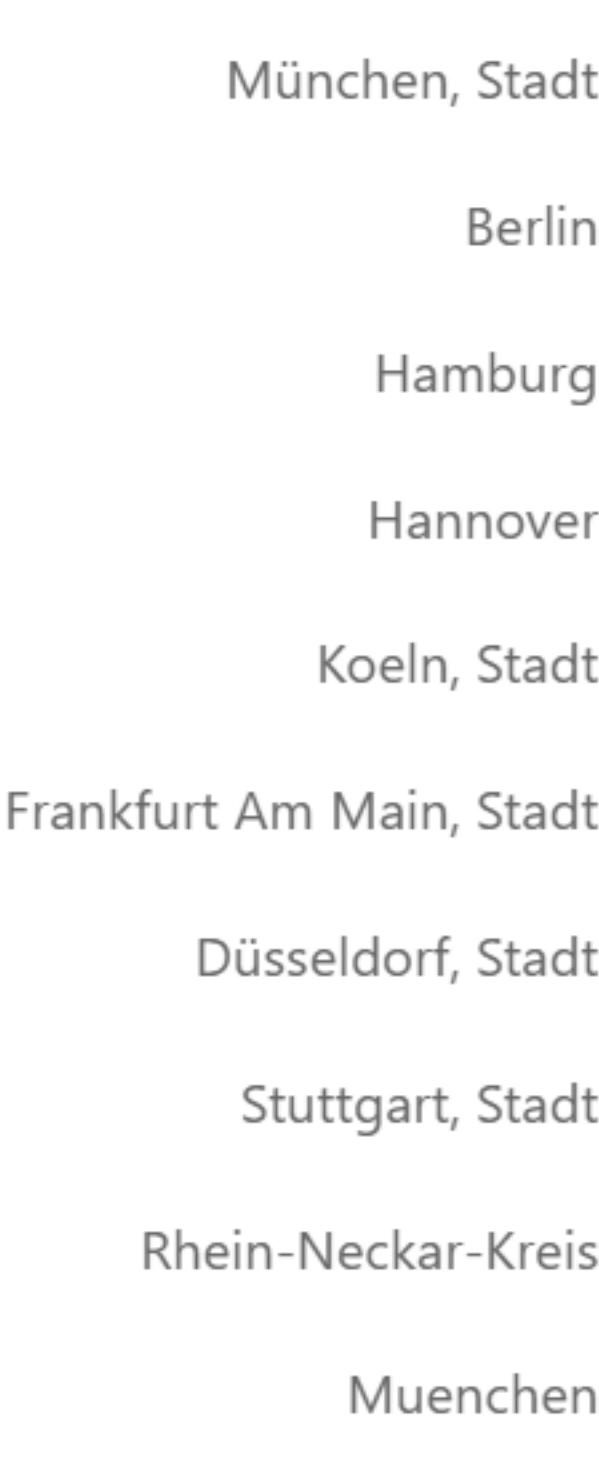

Top 10 Regions to Investigate · Registered BEVs

Largest BEV markets below one or both regional provision medians.

Top 10 BEV Markets · Registered BEVs

Region Profile

Why did this region surface, and how does it compare with the rest of Germany?

München, Stadt

München, Stadt ranks 1st by registered BEV stock and is below the regional median on both total and fast charging provision.

Registered BEVs

BEV stock rank: 1 of 400

62,153

Total Points / 1,000 BEVs

30.4% below regional median

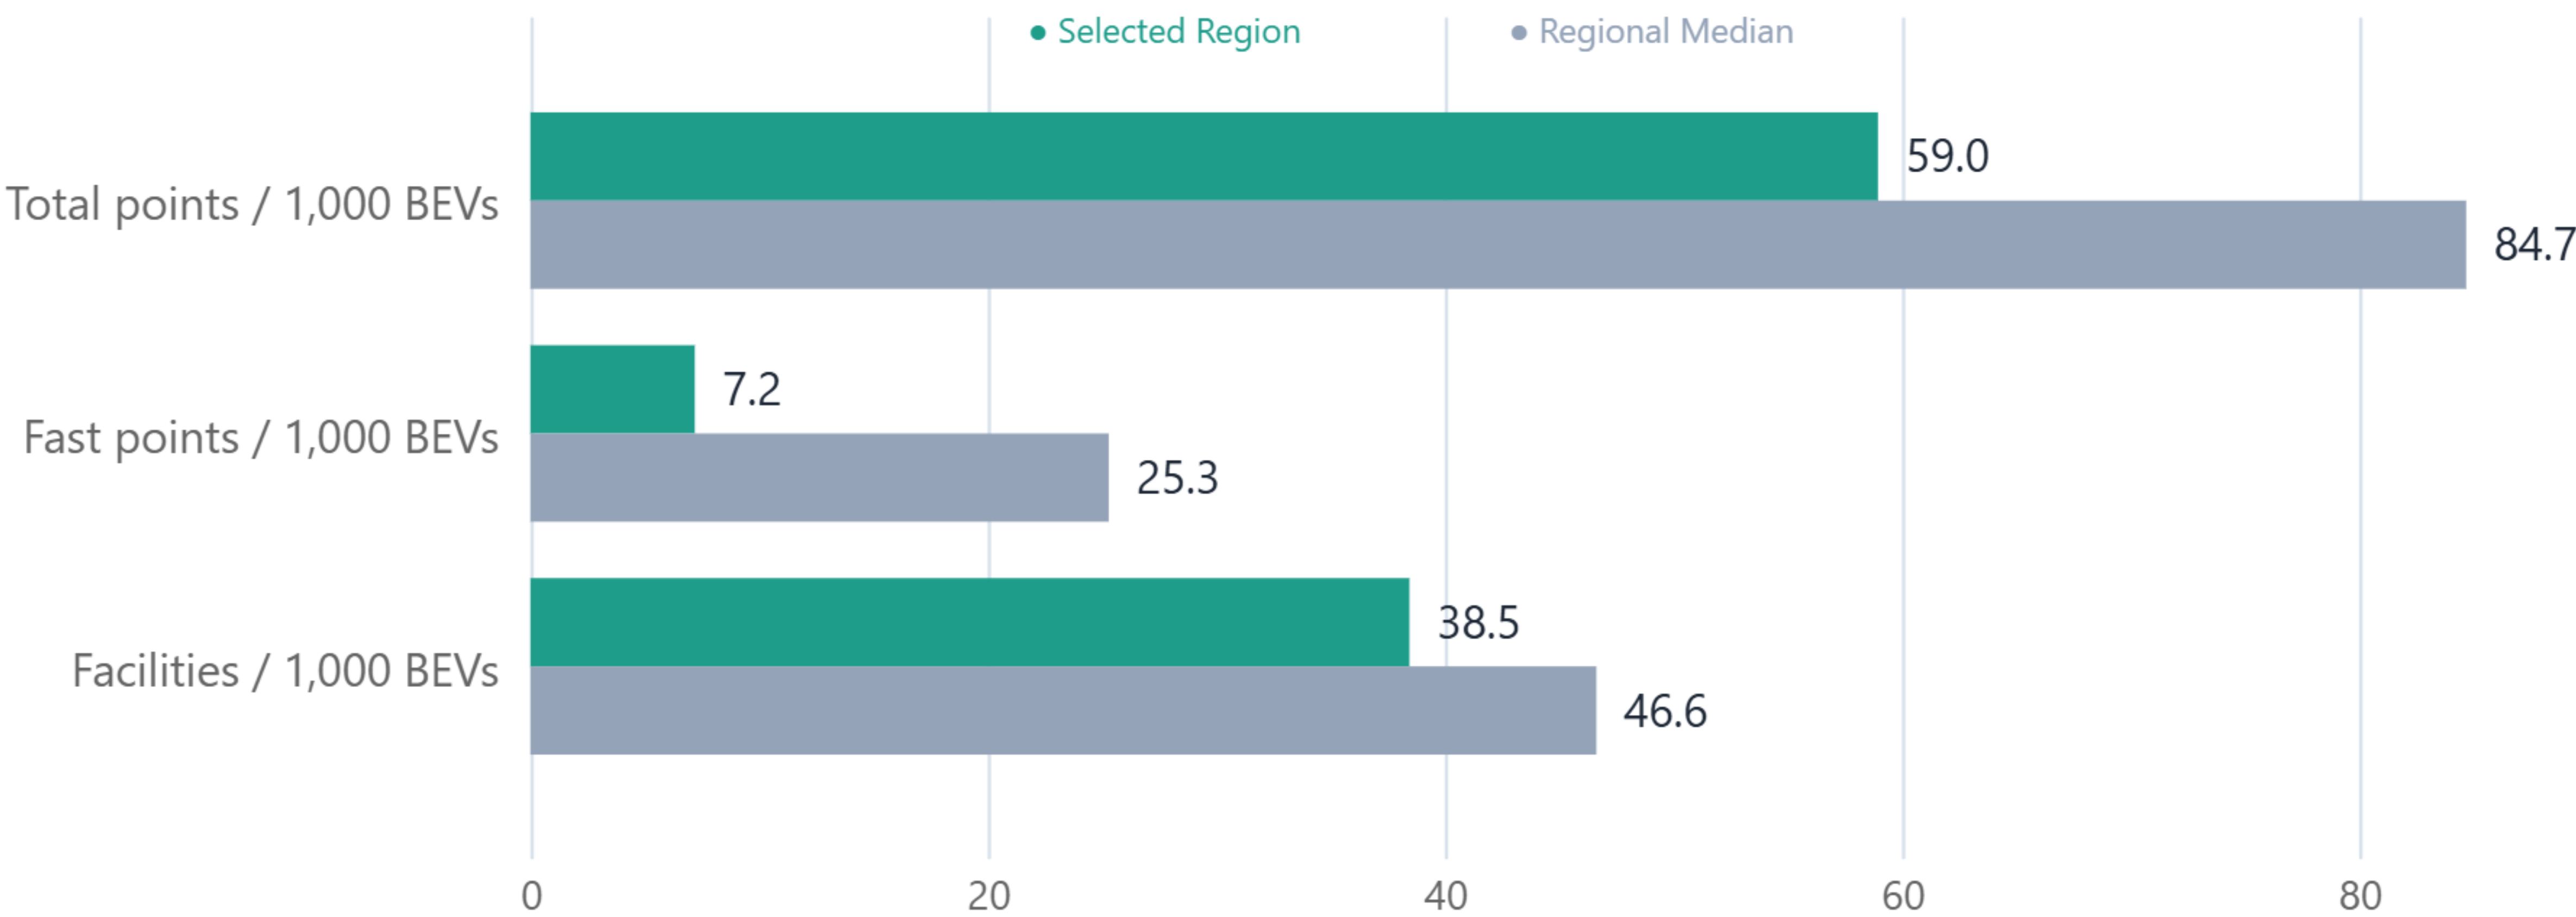

58.95

Fast Points / 1,000 BEVs

71.6% below regional median

7.19

Selected Region vs Regional Median

Facilities

2,390

Normal

3,217

Fast

447

Nominal power

85.95K

Normal vs Fast Charging Mix

In-Service Normal Charging Points In-Service Fast Charging Points

Screening scope: utilization, traffic, grid feasibility, site availability and economics are not included.